

ART EDUCATORS OF NEW JERSEY

Making Connections

Join with visual arts educators and leaders to discuss the vision of the new NJ Visual & Performing Arts Standards and explore Community Partnerships

Tuesday October 2, 2018
Ocean Place Spa and Resort, Long Branch NJ

Envisioning the Standards

8:00 AM: Complimentary Continental Breakfast

8:45: Welcoming Remarks

9:00: Panel Discussion featuring:

Dr. Dale Schmid, Bob Morrison (ArtsEdNJ), and Art Educators Ellen Hargrove,
Lisa Conklin, Deb Cella

10:00: Q/A

10:45: Exhibitors Area (open until 12:00)
Lunch (included)

Art is My Superpower

11:15: Dr. Kim Defibaugh, President National Art Education Association

Community Partnerships: Advocacy

12:45: Panel featuring:

Bob Morrison (ArtsEdNJ), Lauren Otis (Art Works Trenton), Maggie O'Brien
(Middletown Art Center), Kerri Sullivan (Appel Farm) Ann Marie Miller
(ArtPride), Tamika Diaz (Art Educator)

1:45: Roundtables

NJ Museums and Art Centers will be invited to take part in a round table event where representatives can feature upcoming programs and events.

Who should attend: visual arts educators, arts supervisors, principals superintendents and all administrators, education directors of museums and community arts programs.

Cost:

If attendee registers for the conference (Made in NJ, September 30, October 1-2)

this EVENT IS INCLUDED: Active Membership and Conference Registration: $185 (early)$235 (Late)

If attending Tuesday Only: $50.00 AENJ members, $75 non-members

To Register: <http://www.cvent.com/d/ngqblg>

