Celebrate Youth Art Month by participating in the YAM Design Contest! The Art Educators of New Jersey join other state art organizations to participate in the 2020 Youth Art Month Design Competition. Seven winning entries will be chosen and used to celebrate Youth Art Month in New Jersey. One winning entry will be replicated for the state YAM flag and flown during the 2020 NAEA Conference in Minneapolis. Other winning entries will be transformed into our state YAM poster, YAM button, YAM billboard, YAM t-shirt, and two YAM invitations.

This year, Sargent Art will provide the following student and teacher prizes for each of the seven category winners:

*Students would receive art supplies worth $125 (retail value) and a certificate, and

*Teachers would receive art supplies worth $250 (retail value).

All participating teachers will receive a gift from Sargent* In order to receive a participation gift, the school principal of your school must e-mail the following information to Sargent Art: 1. School enrollment number; 2. Number of Art Teachers; and 3. Number of entries submitted to Youth Art Month. The form will be emailed to you after your submission is received.

The seven winning entries will be displayed at the NJ State YAM Reception in Trenton on March 6, 2020. Those teachers will be contacted and will be given further information on where to mail the original pieces. For more information about the poster contest, please contact AENJ NJ Youth Art Month Co-Chairs Kristy Lopez and Karen Mannino at yam@aenj.org
