

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Art Educators of New Jersey (AENJ) is seeking nominations for leadership positions on its Board of Directors. The term of office will be a two-year term (Oct 2020-Oct 2022).

Nominations are being sought for the following offices: President-Elect, Secretary and Treasurer.

Serving on the AENJ Board of Directors provides officers and directors with an opportunity: To support New Jersey's Visual Arts educators, the students they instruct and the communities they enrich:

- by providing professional development, curriculum development, legislative advocacy, financial, and other supports to Visual Arts educators and Visual Arts education;*
- to ensure that Visual Arts instruction is tailored to meet wide-ranging student abilities and cultural interests and;*
- to ensure that the Visual Arts persist as a powerful, humanizing force that uplifts, inspires, challenges, affirms and dignifies arts patrons, arts students, established and aspiring artists and their communities.*

Elected officers of the Board of Directors of the organization, shall be required to hold up these three duties:

1. Duty of care --- ensuring that the organization takes a prudent approach to using assets, including facilities, people and goodwill. It also means providing oversight for all activities that improve and sustain the organization.
2. Duty of loyalty --- making decisions in the best interest of the organization and not putting themselves first. It also refers to maintaining confidentiality about matters that they discuss in executive sessions.
3. Duty of obedience --- board members must know the local, state and federal laws regarding nonprofit organizations. They must also make sure that members of the organization act ethically, while adhering to the stated mission and purpose of the organization.

To be eligible for office, nominees must have served in leadership roles within AENJ, their school district, local community and/or another association, organization or public charity.
